

THE OUTSIDERS ON TOUR

The Outsiders are a band made of talented musicians, singers and performers who all have learning disabilities. They are a cover band and have also created a few songs of their own including “Rock Jam”, “Andrews Rap” and the brilliant “Look You”. They released their first album in summer 2015 called “Inside Out” and are due to release their second album in summer 2016.

The band have performed to a wide audience group and throughout Yorkshire on many occasions such as private parties, conferences, festivals and their own shows and now they are going on TOUR around the UK!
